

For Immediate Release

HIDDEN TASTING BAR & SOCIAL LOUNGE NOMINATED FOR WHERE TO DINE 2010
READERS' CHOICE AWARDS

VANCOUVER, BC, March 18, 2011 – Hidden Tasting Bar & Social Lounge is honoured to have been nominated as Best Hotel Dining and Bar by Where Magazine's Where to Dine 2010 Readers' Choice Awards. Hidden is among 25 other nominees in this category.

"We are very excited to be nominated" says James Hollohazy, Director of Food & Beverage at The Westin Grand Vancouver who is at the helm of the tapas style tasting bar and social lounge. "This nomination signifies that Vancouverites enjoy our global food offerings that evoke a feeling of urban sophistication yet offers a relaxed, approachable environment that is hip but not pretentious".

Winners in all categories have been selected by the public voting online over the past eight months and they will be announced at the Where To Dine stand-up wine reception being held on April 27th. Winners and runners up will also be included in the Where to Dine editorial appearing in Where Magazine's May issue.

This nomination comes just after Hidden placing among top ten for OpenTable's Diner's Choice Winners 2010 in the Late Night Find category.

Hidden Tasting Bar & Social Lounge is off the lobby of The Westin Grand, Vancouver at 433 Robson Street. Opened in April, 2010, the restaurant specializes in global cuisine made with fresh and local ingredients, served as tapas style small plates. Hidden serves a unique list of enticing cocktails, refined wines and eclectic import beers in a modern and relaxed setting.

For further information contact:

Marion Harper Treskin
General Manager
The Westin Grand, Vancouver
604.647.2550